To whom it may concern:

Re:

Thank you for your support of essential service workers including youth workers amid the COVID-19 pandemic. Your partnership is vital to our ability to continue to provide essential services for young people and families in our communities.

This letter is to verify that the person presenting it, named above, is a current employee of The Link, a nonprofit provider of juvenile justice facilities, emergency shelter and housing for homeless and sex trafficked youth. In their role at The Link, I confirm this team member, in accordance with the Governor's Executive Order is essential to our operations in serving our youth and families amid this situation. Please accept this letter as verification that his/her/their role is essential in ensuring these critically important services continue during this time and are allowed to go into work during the shelter in place order.

Feel free to contact our Human Resources Director at 612-207-1349 if you have any questions. Thank you, again, for your partnership in our efforts to serve youth and families in our communities during this time. Sincerely,
