NATIONAL NETWORK
 for YOUTH

Get Involved in the National Network to Prevent and End Youth Homelessness!

Every year, the National Network for Youth hosts the annual National Summit on Youth Homelessness + Hill Day in Washington D.C. Our 2026 Summit will be hosted on March 12-13, 2025, bringing together service providers, youth advocates, school districts, policymakers, and other passionate individuals.

Why the 2026 National Summit on Youth Homelessness Matters

In the United States, 4.2 million youth, young adults, and young parents experience homelessness in urban, suburban, rural, and tribal communities, with one in five of those young people experiencing trafficking as well as homelessness. Their experiences are often fluid and invisible because of frequent moves between temporary and unstable living situations. As a result, young people experiencing homelessness are uncared, deprioritized, and unheard in homelessness services and policy solutions.

At Summit 2026, youth will be front and center in our collective fight to end homelessness. It will include:

- Youth-Led Sessions to learn directly from youth with lived expertise of homelessness, including NN4Y's National Youth Advisory Council.
- Breakout Sessions on Education, Innovation, Youth Partnerships, and Housing, to participate in discussions from different presenters from all around the country.
- Capitol Hill Advocacy to meet directly with their Members of Congress to advocate for policies to end youth homelessness. NN4Y will support attendees with pre-Summit training + scheduling, fact sheets + asks, and follow-up templates.
